

High Volume Pumping

Wednesday, September 30

Location:

Fawley Power Station, Fawley,
Hampshire, SO45 1TW

PPE required:

Outdoor clothing for the demonstrations or HVP/firefighting PPE for delegates who want to get involved.

A one day workshop looking at the national scene, regional co-operation, equipment developments and operational techniques to maximise the use of these assets.

0915 – Registration and coffee

0945 – Introduction and welcome

1000 – Martin Blunden, CFOA Capability Lead for High Volume Pumping

Looking at the latest national initiatives

1045 – Richard Hall, Leicestershire Fire and Rescue Service

Designing a bespoke High Volume Pumping capability

1130 – Tea/coffee

1150 – Hytrans

Discussing the latest equipment developments

1220 – Charles Fairfull, Surrey FRS

Planning for HVP operations in a wild fire scenario

1245 – Lunch

1345 – Practical workshops and demonstrations

Forest firefighting deployments and hose management/ramping

Combining HVP and conventional FRS pumping

HVP for refinery fires and water recycling

Hytrans developments and demonstrations

1630 – Round up and questions